(5) If we supply a replacement part in the provision of the Services, you must check that there is no impairment of the function of the replacement part. We only provide information regarding the technical characteristics of the replacement part. Compatibility of all technical characteristics of the replacement part is not evaluated by us.

Section 6 Transport

(1) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, transportation of the Goods subject to the Contract to and from your premises or our premises, including any packaging and loading shall be carried out at your expense. Otherwise you shall deliver the Goods subject to the Contract to us at your expense and collect them after completion of the Services.

NORD GEAR LIMITED

Member of the NORD DRIVESYSTEMS Group

(2) Any request for the Services to be completed within a specific time period must be provided in advance of the Commencement Date and must be accompanied by a precise scope of work in the Contract. We shall use reasonable endeavours to meet any such specific time period.

(3) In the event of additional and extended Orders or in the case of necessary additional work agreed between the parties, any agreed period for completion of the Services shall be extended accordingly.

(4) If the provision of the Services is delayed due to industrial disputes, in particular strikes and lock-outs, or the occurrence of circumstances beyond our control, the deadline for performance of the Services shall be extended to a reasonable extent for as long as such obstructions demonstrably have a significant effect on the provision of Services. Should the obstruction continue for longer than 6 months then either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by providing written notice to the other.

Section 8 Acceptance

(1) You are obliged to accept services upon their completion and once any contractually provided acceptance testing of the Goods has been performed. We shall use our reasonable endeavours to eliminate the defect if the Services prove not to be compliant with the contract or the acceptance tests. We shall perform no more than 3 re-tests if the initial acceptance test indicates that the Services have not remedied the apparent fault in the Goods, or otherwise fulfilled the purpose of the Contract.

Re-testing shall not take place for cosmetic defects or due to a circumstance for which you are responsible. You may not refuse acceptance if no significant defect exists.

(2) If you delay acceptance for reasons for which we are not responsible, acceptance is deemed to have been made after the expiry of two weeks after the acceptance testing has completed or in the absence of acceptance testing, our notification that the Services are complete.

(3) On acceptance, we are no longer liable for defects which are attributable to us if you have not reserved a claim for a particular defect.

Section 9 Reservation of title, extended lien

(1) We reserve the right of ownership to all accessories, spare parts and replacement units until receipt of all payments resulting from the Contract.

(2) We are entitled to a right of lien for our claims arising from the Contract on the Goods that come into our possession due to the Contract. The right of lien can also be claimed for claims from previously supplied deliveries and services if these are in association with the Goods. The right of lien only applies to other claims from the business relationship if these are undisputed or legally binding.

Section 10 Claims for defects

(1) With regard to the type, extent and characteristics of the Services to be provided, the details stated in the Contract are definitive.

(2) You must give us written notification of faults promptly and in a comprehensible form together with the necessary information for rectification of the fault.

(3) At our discretion, we shall provide rectification of faults which are acknowledged by us by means of remedy of the fault (reworking) or by delivery of a fault-free item (replacement delivery).

(4) If the Goods in need of repair or replacement are under warranty, you may make warranty claims for the work completed under the Contract until the expiry of the warranty period for components which are installed to remedy the fault. Proof of the relevant warranty is required in order to make such a claim. Remedy of a fault under warranty does not constitute a recommencement of the limitation period set out in this clause.

(5) Components in the Goods that are replaced become our property.

(6) In the event that we provide a warranty for the Services carried out, warranty claims for defective Services are subject

(8) Furthermore, warranty claims are excluded if you carry out or commission reworking, modifications or repairs without previously providing us with opportunity for remedy or obtaining our written permission.

Section 11 Liability

(1) Nothing in these Terms or a Contract will limit or exclude our liability for:

- i. Death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors (as applicable);
- ii. Fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
- iii. Breach of these terms implied by section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 (title and quiet possession); or
- iv. Any matter in respect of which it would be unlawful for us to exclude or restrict liability.

(2) Subject to clause 11(1), we shall not be liable to you, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for any loss of profit or indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with these Terms or the Contract (including any such losses that may result from our deliberate personal repudiatory breach of the Terms or Contract); and our total liability to you in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with these Terms or the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, including losses caused by our deliberate personal repudiatory breach, will not exceed the price of the Services. Any claim made under these Terms or a Contract shall be limited to the price paid for the Services.

(3) If the Goods are damaged by us, we shall have the option of repairing these at our expense, providing new Goods or providing a replacement at our discretion.

(4) All claims by you, for whatever reason, are subject to the statutory periods of limitation from the date that the action giving rise to a claim occurred.

Section 12 Software

(1) In the case of provision of Services involving Software or relating to the Software Settings, any settings required by you must be provided to us prior to commencement of the Services. Alternatively, if you require us to advise on the appropriate settings required, then you must notify us of your function specification requirements prior to commencement of the Services. Your use of the Software is on the basis of a non-exclusive licence being granted by us.

(2) In addition, the following provisions apply in association with Software Settings provided by us.

- a) Claims of defects are excluded if we cannot replicate any error, or where satisfactory evidence of the fault cannot be provided by you, or where such defects are due to: (i) factors which were not known at the time of completion of the Services; (ii) modifications by third parties; (iii) misuse or incorrect use by you or (iv) incompatibility with the IT environment used by you. Trial operation and acceptance of the Software Settings prior to use in production is your responsibility;
- b) Data backup is your responsibility;
- c) In the case of Software Settings, the function specifications provided by you will be implemented as closely as possible. We accept no warranty that use of the Software Settings does not infringe patents or registered designs of third parties.

Section 14 Compensation by customers

(1) You shall indemnify us against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including but not limited to any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by us

Section 15 Termination

- (1) Without affecting any other right or remedy available to us, we may terminate a Contract by giving you written notice.
- (2) Without affecting any other right or remedy available to us, either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
 - (a) the other party commits a material breach of any term of the Contract and (if such a breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within 10 days of that party being notified in writing to do so;
 - (b) the other party takes any step or action in connection with its entering administration, provisional liquidation or any composition or arrangement with its creditors (other than in relation to a solvent restructuring), being wound up (whether voluntarily or by order of the court, unless for the purpose of a solvent restructuring), having a receiver appointed to any of its assets or ceasing to carry on business or, if the step or action is taken in another jurisdiction, in connection with any analogous procedure in the relevant jurisdiction;
 - (c) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business; or
 - (d) the other party's financial position deteriorates to such an extent that in the terminating party's opinion the other party's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Contract has been placed in jeopardy.
- (3) Without affecting any other right or remedy available to us, we may terminate a Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to you if:
 - (a) you fail to pay any amount due under the Contract on the due date for payment; or
 - (b) there is a change of control of your organisation.
- (4) Without affecting any other right or remedy available to us, we may suspend the supply of Services under a Contract or any other contract between us and you if you fail to pay any amount due under a Contract on the due date for payment, you become subject to any of the events listed in Clause 13(2)(b) to Clause 13(2)(d), or we reasonably believe that you are about to become subject to any of them.
- (5) On termination of a Contract:
 - (a) you shall immediately pay to us all of our outstanding unpaid invoices and, in respect of Services supplied but for which no invoice has been submitted, we shall submit an invoice, which shall be payable by you immediately on receipt;
 - (b) you shall return all of our materials, tools, parts and equipment in your possession which have not been paid for. If you fail to do so, then we may enter your premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned, you shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose not connected with the Contract.
- (6) Termination or expiry of a Contract shall not affect any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry.
- (7) Any provision of the Contract that expressly or by implication is intended to come into or continue in force on or after termination or expiry of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 16 General

- (3) A person who is not a party to these Terms or a Contract shall not have any rights under or in connection with it.
- (4) Except as set out in these Terms, no variation of a Contract shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives).
- (5) A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent right or remedy. A failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- (6) If any provision or part-provision of these Terms or a Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this Clause 15 shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of these Terms.
- (7) These Terms and the Contract constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede and extinguish all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that in entering into a Contract it does not rely on and all have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in the Contract.
- (8) These Terms, a Contract, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or their subject matter or formation, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of England. The courts of England shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Terms or its subject matter or formation.
